Coach Mike Tuschen finished his boys' basketball coaching career on March 4th as the Jaguars fell to the Platte-Geddes Black Panthers in the Regions at the Corn Palace. "Mr. T" has been the Stickney Raiders/C-S Jaguars coach for the past 37 years. He has racked up a 556-256 record, with 8 State B tournaments under his belt, including bringing home the Championship trophy in 2002 and 2011! He is also the Technology Coordinator for both campuses and the Business teacher at the High School campus. Spring has Sprung!

It is hard to believe that the calendar says April already. This month we are gearing up for the Smarter Balanced Testing. No matter what your personal feelings on high-stakes testing are, there is no escaping the reality that these assessments will be an important part of your child's academic experience. Every parent wants to see their student to experience success in the classroom. So, what's the best way to help your child prepare for high-stakes tests—and keep a healthy mindset while doing so? Here are some simple tips for parents to help your child at his or her best on testing days.

1. Make sure your child gets a good night's sleep and eats a healthy breakfast on testing days.
2. Try not to put too much pressure on the student. Reinforce that as long as they work hard and do their absolute best you will be proud of them.
3. Keep a positive attitude about testing in general around your child and emphasize their ability to demonstrate what they have learned rather than the consequences of not passing
4. Remind the students that the test is important and it is important that they try their absolute best.
5. Encourage your child to stay focused on the test, even if other students finish early. Remind them they don't have to be done just because the students around them are finished. Take your time and do YOUR best work.
6. Remind your child to listen carefully to the instructions from the teacher and to read the directions and each question carefully. There is no reward for being the first one done!
7. Remind them to answer all questions even if they are unsure of the answer. Remind them to do their best and make the best guess as needed.
8. A positive attitude goes a long way! Help your child feel positive and confident about taking the test and doing their best.

Below is a list of dates your child will be testing with the Smarter Balanced test this month. Please if at all possible try to schedule appointments around this testing schedule. Attendance is so important during this time period. Each individual teacher will be sending home testing information in the days to come. Thanks for your support in making this a positive stress free testing month.

A Hair Raising Experience!!

Representatives from Central Electric came to Stickney and talked to the 4th & 5th graders about electricity. They discussed the differences between the types of electricity such as renewable/non-renewable energy and did demonstrations with static electricity and how it can be conducted through items or be insulated from with certain materials. They also had a bicycle connected to various items that use electric power and how much energy it took to power each item. The more things she plugged in the harder it got to pedal the generator, with each type of light bulb using different amps to light up. Grecia held paper confetti in her hand and the students were amazed when they "jumped" out of her hand and flew all over the place. Bryce touched elbows with Faith sending sparks flying! They also talked about electrical safety.
